

GAMES

Awesome SicBO v1.0.1

by Bryan Arnston

Place your bets! SicBo, a Chinese version of the ever popular craps, can be played in many casinos, from Las Vegas to Atlantic City. Now this ancient Chinese game comes to your Mac! Check the odds and place your bets. The dealer rolls three dice from a closed container. After each roll the winning areas are highlighted and paid according to the odds. Are you a winner?

Bunny Killer v2.1.1

by Jonathan Sweet Driestone

Draw a bead, aim and shoot the bunnies! Score by preventing them from reaching the right side of your window. (Note: No bunnies were harmed during the development of this game.)

Craps

Don't crap out! This simple game asks you to bet, rolls the dice, then tells you of the results. Good luck!

Cribbage v2.6

by Chris Christiansen

Fall into "The Crib" and experience hours of fun. Get caught up in "The Layaway," "The Play" and "The Show." This one or two player card game measures progress on a peg board.

Invaders v1.2

by Simone Bettini

Now this classic arcade game comes to your Macintosh! Blast the ever encroaching invaders out of space. Be merciless — they are!

Want to rake in the really big points? Aim for the UFO!

IQ Test

by Chris Athanas

Is your IQ larger than your grocery bill or smaller than your shoe size? This application gives you an IQ test, and then the result of this socially stratifying number. Take it in private!

Less than Mortal Kombat

You fight familiar opponents in bloodless text battles in this riveting text version of the arcade classic.

NinjaBoy World v1.0

by Jun Suzukawa

Experience the thrill of Asian martial arts! Hack your enemies to bits! Can you successfully guide this Ninja warrior through his perilous scrolling world? The price of failure is ... well, you don't want to know! Set your Mac to 16-color mode and prepare for deadly fun. A 68030 or better processor is required.

Pong v1.0

by Chris Hobbs

How good is your response time? You and a friend compete, each trying to prevent the ball from touching your home side. The first video game was the best! Find out why it was so addicting.

PuyoPuyo v1.0

by John Stiles

You may never play Tetris again! This geometric, falling-pieces game is even more fun! Keep the bouncy little Puyos from proliferating. When four touch, you eliminate the group. Watch out for the pesky gray Puyos and listen to Carbuncle, the friendly game supervisor.

Realmz v1.3

by Tim Phillips

When a game takes up three disks, you know it's a winner! This is the best role playing game we've seen! It features commercial quality graphics, sound and ease of play. When you start out, the good King fully equips you and then reveals your secret quest. Then you traverse the world facing nasty rats and marauding trolls. Explore the dungeons, gain experience and fulfill your quest. Be forewarned! Realmz requires over 6MB of hard disk space! With graphics like these it's well worth it!

Same Game v1.07

by Takahiro Sumiya

This completely addictive game will entice you for years to come! What's unique about this challenging 2-D geometric game is its exponential scoring system. You have to see it to believe it! The rules sound simple: just group as many similarly colored-squares together as possible before eliminating the group.

Solitaire Bingo v1.0

by Larry B. Hunter

Experience the thrill of Bingo without leaving home! The only drawback is that you can no longer win those large cash prizes — the thrill of winning must be your reward.

Spades v0.50

by DimensionF Software

A great computer version of the classic card game! Play the highest value card for a given suit and remember — spades are absolutely the best cards to have!

SpamBlaster v0.1

by Todd Furmanski

Attention Monty Python fans! Save the world from SPAM (Specially Prepared Assorted Meat — No, really! That's what it stands for!). Extracting oil from Spam just might solve the world's energy problems. Spam's response is attacking with deadly Spam loafs. You must protect your sector with your SpamBlasting ship! Tongue in cheek, it is still a thrilling ride! Look out for incoming Spam!

Star Patrol v1.5

by Donald E. Carlile

Star Patrol is a classic trek-style game specifically adapted to the Macintosh. It features continuous action with emphasis on strategy rather than arcade skills. If you plan ahead you will conquer!

GAME

StarRunner Plus v1.4

by Tuan Huynh

Humans are stranded on planets throughout the universe and only you can save them! Destroy all the dangerous creatures that cross your path. If it moves, shoot it! If it's still moving, blast it again!

T-MAX v2.0

by Jon Nathanson

The blocks are falling! The blocks are falling! Are you experiencing a revitalized urge to fit falling blocks into nooks and crannies? Eliminate horizontal rows and receive blazing scores with this engaging arcade clone.

Tashiki

by Trebor Kepone

Get ready for hours of fun with this simple matching game! Entertains while you hone your memory skills.

Think Ahead+ v3.0.1

by Keith Lambert

Mind bending strategy, solid graphics and classic sounds keep you coming back for more! Score as many points as possible while preventing your formidable computer opponent from doing the same. Accumulate positive or negative points by selecting tiles vertically or horizontally.

Vegas Blackjack v2.0

by Glenn Seemann

Experience all the thrills of classic Vegas style Blackjack without risking your money! After the initial deal you can hit, stand, double down and split. If the dealer shows an ace you can purchase insurance against excessive house luck! The attractive user interface makes this one of our favorite '21' games.
