

The OLD FOURTEENTH

11-15, 23-19, 8-11, 22-17, 4-8

So called because it was the 14th game in the earliest editions of the works of Payne (1756) and Sturges (1800). One of the most popular openings of the game and a favorite of students.