Carriers at War. Strategic Studies Group has released the Macintosh version of Carriers at War, a superb simulation of the crucial WWII aircraft carrier battles in the Pacific. Carriers at War combines a great game system with excellent graphics, animated combat scenes, detailed sound sequences and vast amounts of technical and historical information.

Fifty years ago, the infamous Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor plunged half the world into war. Carriers at War is a re-enactment of six crucial carrier battles from that awesome conflict. These are: Pearl Harbor, Coral Sea, Midway, Eastern Solomons, Santa Cruz, and the Philippine Sea, scene of the Great Marianas Turkey Shoot. Your task in Carriers at War is to seek out and destroy enemy carriers, fleets, and air forces. . .before they do the same to you!

Carriers at War requires a color Mac with Color QuickDraw, hard drive, System 6.0.7 with 2MB RAM or System 7 with 4 MB RAM. Suggested retail price is $69.95. Strategic Studies Group, 904/469-8880.

Hell Cab. Hell Cab for the Macintosh has just been released. It is, of course, a cab ride from Hell. Everyone has a taxi horror story, right? But you're going to have the worst one yet. See, this isn't just another New York cabby. This guy's trying to earn his horns. (Yea, horns, as in the Devil, Lucifer, Beelzebub, Satan, the Dark Angel, etc.). All he has to do to get them is take you to the hottest hell-holes in history and get you to sell your soul. This is truly a Faustian adventure. But now maybe you're special. Maybe you can get out alive with your soul intact. Hit the Coliseum in Rome. Meet the notorious Nero who invites you to do lunch. . .with his lions. The trenches of Verdun steep in the stench of mustard gas and rotting bodies. Is one of them yours? Now tour the Empire State Building. All the way to the top. From there it's all downhill. Then, there's the prehistoric jungle. . .and one incredible prehistoric nightmare!

Hell Cab requires a Macintosh with 13-inch color monitor, 5 MB RAM, CD-ROM drive, and System 6.0.7 or later. Hell Cab has a suggested retail of $99.00. Warner New Media, 800/593-6334.
