Reader Comments

Victory at Sea: Three-Sixty is FIXING Victory At Sea and should be mailing new diskettes around July-September. Conversely, Harpoon II will be my favorite game when released on the Mac around July-August, and so the company is not that bad. Michael Wilks - Dallas, Texas

Flying Nightmares: I just wanted to say that Flying Nightmares is only acceptable on a PowerPC. The box claims that it will run on a LC, but that only means it will not crash. It will be WAY TOO SLOW. David Naunton - Chicago, Illinois
