

For users who don't have a modem or who would rather use the phone, we run a 24-hour order call-in center. Once a user's credit card is verified, the operator will read a code which the user types below. If the user is successful, you can take action by unlocking your program, etc.