

Choose whether you will pay by check/purchase order or credit card. If you choose to use your credit card, rest assured that your credit card account number will remain secure and will not be stored permanently inside your computer or on your computer's disk drive.