

History

Anthropology HyperTextBook

Historical exploration

Explore many important civilizations, like Bantu, Aztec and Saracen . You'll also learn about leading anthropologists.

- * References to common artifacts associated with different cultures

- * Track links to particular topics

(HyperCard Stack by Iverson Software Co.)

Education-> Volume 232/December '96

Archaeology HyperText Book 3.1

Unearthed

This is a great reference for students studying Archaeology. It covers important discoveries, revelations and sites around the world.

- * Track links to particular subjects

- * Quickly view related subjects

- * Comprehensive A-Z reference

- * Covers people, cities and civilizations

(HyperCard Stack by Iverson Software Co.)

Education-> Volume 230/October '96

Click History 2.1.5

Daily historical events

Review thousands of historical events - dozens for each day of the year. Ideal for history projects.

- * Search feature

- * Comprehensive events list

- * Linked Hyper text files

(Hypercard Stack by Coconut Info)

Children's-> Volume 229/September '96

Education-> Volume 229/September '96

Guide to the Artists

Learn about the most famous artists of all time. This comprehensive guide contains biographies on more than 600 artists, like Andy Warhol, Beatrix Potter and Leonardo da Vinci. Click on an artist's name and information appears, including a brief life history and a list of their most famous works.

Education-> Volume 224/April '96