Blox Arcade 1.0

This is a Tetris-style game with some added features. Play the classic brick puzzle with three additional variations. In Crush, the blocks you have placed keep moving up the screen. In Drift, the blocks move from left to right. The screen is split in two and you have to place blocks on both the top and bottom of the screen in Split. Three great games!

Games-> Volume 221/January '96

Boulder

Push blocks around the warehouse in this Sokoban-style game. Each level contains a group of blocks, and you must push them into the correct places. You'd better think ahead - it's easy to get trapped, or to move blocks into spaces where you can't get them out. If you make a mistake, you can restart the level.
