For DOS & Windows

Use your PC to find the best on TV. Have you ever said "If only I had known that was on?" or wished you could locate specific programs by subject or star? The TVNow program is an outstanding way of creating personalized television guides for you and every member of your family.

Movie and sports fans will love the TVNow search engine which allows you to search and print by actor, program type, team name, title, decade and more. You'll never miss the chance to view or tape your favorite programs. TVNow covers schedules for more than 90 channels.

You can receive the software and monthly updates on 3.5" disks by first class mail. You can also choose to download the software and monthly schedules from the Internet. TV searching and printing are done off-line.
