This allow you to define the layout of the grid   in which all thumbnails are displayed.

You have three default choices for usefull settings under the sample pop-up menu.
But you may set your own preferences through numerical settings or directly by dragging and streching the various parameters of the grid, the thumbnail and the decorator.

You may choose also the various informations you want to display along the thumbnail using four pop-up menus.