

The 240-foot ATRIUM. This area of the museum is one of the most exciting because there's always something new here. The cars and displays are constantly changing.