

Choose whether you will pay by check or credit card. If you want to fax your order form, you'll need to use a credit card. Rest assured that your credit card account number will remain secure and will not be stored permanently inside your computer or on your computer's disk drive.