MillPro

You may know this game also as 'Nine Men's Morris.' No matter what, just don't get caught in the mill. Before you know it, you've lost all but three of your playing pieces, traditionally called 'merels', and now you've really got to jump to save yourself.

Lost in a Labyrinth

Doomed to wander the dungeon, you only have a compass and map to help you find your way out.

Word Hunter

Can you read upside down and backwards? You'll need to if you want to solve these puzzles. If that's not enough, just enter your own word lists and print the puzzles for friends or students.

Spin 'n' Win

Buy letters from a one-armed bandit and solve the phrase. Don't worry, there's a hint to point you into the right direction. The money's not real, but it's nice to pretend.

Cross Words Deluxe

Coming Soon: A whole book full of crossword puzzles. You won't need the dictionary to solve them. If you're not sure, just ask the computer to highlight the wrong letters. Should you make a mistake, it's easily corrected. On your next trip, just print out your puzzles and take them with you.

ArtApart™

Take great artwork and create your own jigsaw puzzle with real interlocking pieces. You decide on the size and number of pieces. Do you feel like finishing a quick one with 20 pieces or take the challenge of 2,000? Don't worry if you don't finish it, you can always save a game and come back to it later.

Note: To save disk space, we are only showing a dithered 16 color sample. ArtApart makes full use of your monitor's capabilities.

Maze Master

You're trapped in a labyrinth! Keep moving, every second counts. It's a-maze-ing a blind mouse can move so fast. Choose between walls of different heights. Start with a small maze and work your way to the monster mazes. Going somewhere without your PC? Just let Maze Master generate and print up to 100 mazes with a single command.

Jewel Thief

Who can resist the sparkle of precious stones? Pick up aquamarines in Suez and onyx in Manhattan. But watch out for the native folks - they know a smuggler when they see one.

Space Explorer

You're low on fuel and the gravity is strong on planet Diondu, can you make it back to the mother ship? If the Pramm System is too challenging, try our own solar system and navigate a landing on Mars. Features 22 planets with different surface conditions and challenging structures to navigate.
