

Beguiling tuberous begonias are midsummer favorites. They have spectacular flowers, both singles and doubles, ranging from two inches to eight inches across. Flower colors are solid red, pink, yellow, orange, and white, except in the picotee class where margin colors are deeper. Shapes are varied, resembling a rosebud, camellia, narcissus, or carnation.