

Cherry Fruit Flies

Cherry fruit flies have larvae you sometimes find when you're pitting cherries. The larvae are small yellowish worms, while the adult is black and smaller than a housefly with four black bands on its wings. Use a spray program advised by your county extension agent from bloom until 14 days before harvest. Or spray with diazinon or malathion at seven-day intervals as soon as you notice flies or maggots.