

Reduce moisture loss even more with a layer of mulch two to three inches thick. Use semi-decayed wood chips, pine bark, well-decayed manure, peat moss, or leaf mold.

Keep mulch away from the trunk to reduce damage caused by rodents and decay.