

Leafhoppers

Leafhoppers are small insects and are typically wedge-shaped and green. They suck juices from many vegetables, causing the plants to lose vigor and turn yellow. They also carry disease. Use a chemical spray to control them.