

Jack-in-the-Pulpit

(Arisaema triphyllum)

Unusual, vase-shaped, greenish-brown flowers from April to June on plants 2 feet tall. Red berries follow later in the season.

Light and Soil: Shade. Well-drained, moist soil.

Propagation: Seeds, but often self-sows.

Comments

Showy and attractive.