

Dog-Tooth Violet

Also called adder's-tongue or trout lily
(Erythronium)

Solitary white flowers in April and May on plants 6 inches tall.

Light and Soil: Shade. Well-drained, moist soil.

Propagation: Offsets or seeds.

Comments

Forms a dense mat. Leaves are mottled with brown.