

#1 Commands

Open
Close
About
Exit

1# CommandLink

#2 Procedures

Opening a File

Closing a File

Scrolling Through a File

Exiting Hexdump

Learning About Hexdump

Viewing Hexdump Source Code

#3 K4 $5 +6 Open

The [Open] command in Hexdump's [File] menu allows you to open a file and load it into Hexdump to view.

3# OpenFile

4K Open Command

5$ The Hexdump [Open] Command

6+ 010

#7 K8 $9 +10 Close

The [Close] command in Hexdump's [File] menu allows you to close the file currently being displayed in the Hexdump window. Closing a file will free the memory used by the file's buffer.

7# CloseFile

8K Close Command

9$ The Hexdump [Close] Command

10+ 020

#₁₁ K₁₂ $₁₃ +₁₄ About

The [About] command in Hexdump's [File] menu displays a dialogue box containing author and copyright information about Hexdump.

11# AboutHexdump

12^K About Command

13^{$} The Hexdump [About] Command

14⁺ 030

#15 K16 $17 +18 Exit

The [Exit] command in Hexdump's [File] menu will close any currently open file and terminate the Hexdump application.

15# ExitHexdump

16^K Exit Command

17^{$} The Hexdump [Exit] Command

18⁺ 040

#¹⁹ K₂₀ $₂₁ +²² Opening a File

To open a file in Hexdump, select the [File] and [Open] commands. Hexdump will display a standard drive/directory list box from which you can choose a file. Highlight the desired file and press [OK]. Or, simply double-click on the file name to open it.

19# ProcOpenFile

20^K Opening a File in Hexdump

21^{$} Procedure for Opening a File

22⁺ 050

#²³ K²⁴ $²⁵ +²⁶ Closing a File

To Close a file in Hexdump without exiting the application, select the [File] and [Close] commands. The Hexdump window will be cleared.

23# ProcCloseFile

24^K Closing a File in Hexdump

25^{$} Procedure for Closing a File

26⁺ 060

#²⁷ K₂₈ $²⁹ +³⁰ Scrolling Through a File

Paging Down -- You can use the scroll bars or the keyboard to view the contents of a file with Hexdump. To scroll down a page with the keyboard, press the Page Down key. To scroll down a page with the mouse, click the scroll bar below the thumbtrack.

Paging Up -- Press the Page Up key on the keyboard or click the scroll bar above the thumbtrack.

Scrolling One Line Down -- Press the down cursor key or click the down scroll button.

Scrolling One Line Up -- Press the up cursor key or click the up scroll button.

Scrolling to the Right -- Press the right cursor key, select the right scroll button, or click the scroll bar to the right of the thumbtrack.

Scrolling to the Left -- Press the left cursor key, select the left scroll button, or click the scroll bar to the left of the thumbtrack.

27# ProcScrollFile

28^K Scrolling Through a File in Hexdump

29^{$} Procedure for Scrolling in Hexdump

30⁺ 070

#₃₁ K₃₂ $₃₃ +₃₄ Exiting Hexdump

To exit the Hexdump application, select the [File] and [Exit] commands. Any currently open file will be closed, and the Hexdump application will terminate.

31# ProcExitHexdump
32^K Exiting Hexdump
33^{$} Procedure for Exiting Hexdump
34⁺ 080

#³⁵ K₃₆ $³⁷ +³⁸ Learning About Hexdump

To view author and copyright information about Hexdump, select the [File] and [About] commands.

35# ProcLearnHexdump

36^K Viewing Author and Copyright Information

37^{$} Using the [About] Command

38⁺ 090

#³⁹ K⁴⁰ $⁴¹ +⁴² Viewing Hexdump Source Code

To view the source code for Hexdump, load the file HEX.C from your Maximizing Windows diskette into a word processor capable of viewing an ASCII file.

39# ProcViewHexdump
40^K Viewing Hexdump Source Code
41^{$} How to View Hexdump Source Code
42⁺ 100