

Separate Images

A separate image is a group of pixels that are completely surrounded by white pixels. Watch carefully the outlines drawn in the "Calculating Animation Cells..." dialog box to make sure the images are separated the way you wanted.