

Andrew Lloyd Webber's The Phantom of the Opera, directed by Harold Prince and produced by Cameron Mackintosh and The Really Useful Company, Inc., is the most successful stage musical of all time, with worldwide ticket sales exceeding $3 billion.

The winner of seven Tony Awards including Best Musical, it is currently Broadway's fifth longest-running running show of all time. Worldwide, The Phantom of the Opera consistently plays to larger audiences and in longer engagements than any other musical in modern history.