

THE SCARLET PIMPERNEL is Baroness Orczy's classic story of romance, intrigue and swashbuckling adventure, set to music by Broadway composer Frank Wildhorn (Jekyll & Hyde, The Civil War) and lyricist/bookwriter Nan Knighton (Saturday Night Fever).

The beautifully lush score takes audiences from the guillotines of Paris to the Royal Palace in London, as the elusive Pimpernel rescues innocent victims from the clutches of the Reign of Terror and crusades for justice during the tumultuous French Revolution. Packed full of swordfights, romance, intrigue and comedy,

THE SCARLET PIMPERNEL is literature's original super hero who must maintain his hidden identity, even from his wife - the worldly Marguerite - who may have some secrets of her own.
