

Remedial English Teacher, Irvington Public School System, Irvington, Indiana, 1974-1975.

As background for my doctoral dissertation, I took this position in a program for the disadvantaged. I designed a program in remedial English for Irvington as part of my doctoral project. Although I had intended to leave Irvington after gaining my degree, I was persuaded to take post as English teacher in standard program.

EDUCATION

Doctor of Education (Ed.D.). State University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois, 1976.

Thesis: "English for the Disadvantaged in a Heterogeneous Suburban School System."

My specialization in education for the disadvantaged gave me both the insight and sensitivity that made possible my rapid promotion in the metropolitan Chicago area.

Master of Arts (M.A.). State University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois, 1974.

Thesis: "Social Problems Implied in Chaucer."

Bachelor of Arts (B.A.). University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa, 1969.

Majored in English and minored in Economics.

MILITARY

Captain, United States Army, served in West Germany, Education Officer 1969-1971.

REFERENCES

Full references will be provided upon request.