

When you want to see changes with the seasons, this is the garden for you! The emergence of early spring bulbs signals the garden's awakening from its long winter nap. Summer sees this design at the height of its beauty, when the brilliant colors of the blanket flowers, butterfly bush and other favorites show themselves. Autumn brings shades of reds and yellows, accented with soft blues.