

This garden takes a Celtic design twist on the traditional 17th century, western European knot garden. Four ribbons of hedges weave around colorful splashes of flowering plants. To keep your knot orderly, trim hedges regularly. Note that, for this type of design, plants are placed more tightly than ordinarily recommended. As plants grow and mature, take care to trim and thin crowded areas.