

If you live in eastern North America, plant this garden for a colorful array of flora all year long. Use hardy varieties to provide early spring blooms and beautiful fall color. The garden changes with the seasons without sacrificing its charm and beauty. The plants in this design are low maintenance and only require some shearing and pruning.