

English gardens place a lot of emphasis on symmetry. This landscape mimics this style by using the same types of plants and shapes on both sides of the enclosed backyard. In the center is a concrete pond with container plants placed at each corner. Shrubs and tall flowers accent this feature. A large fountain and several flowerbeds provide formal flair to the front of the house.