

Choose this garden to bring good fortune. Use bright red and yellow flowers to accent the wandering path with the colors of fire and earth. Crowds of low-lying plants are used in the garden with either a flowering plum or cherry tree—known to bring good luck. Place this garden in the south, southwest, or northeast area of your property. The plants require minimal care all year round.