

Soggy ground got you down? Here's your solution—these showy perennials like to have their feet damp! They will brighten up that moist shady area and do especially well along a creek, particularly the orchids. The plants in this design are easy to grow in warm zones and mix well with ferns and ornamental grasses. Keep area moist if it is not naturally damp.