

So many wonderful evergreens, perennials and bulbs find their homes naturally among rocks. Remember to keep the more moisture loving plants towards the bottom of any slope and encourage creeping plants to crawl over low rocks or stepping stones.