

This garden combines the beauty of roses, bulbs, annuals and perennials. Flowering bulbs awaken first to provide a warm welcome to early roses. As the season progresses, the roses heighten to full blossom and complement the flowering perennials and annuals until mid autumn. To maintain a healthy garden, be sure soil is well worked, feed the roses every 6 weeks, and mulch the perennials well for winter.