

The plants in this shady corner garden bloom during different seasons, giving the garden a hint of color all year. Hosta's, ferns, and elephant ears are combined with poppies, florist's cineraria and Indian crocus underneath a tall crabapple tree, making this an ideal garden for that empty corner in your yard.