

The centerpiece of this garden is the irregular shaped flowerbed with gazing ball that contains colorful flowers found in the Southeast portion of the country. Small juniper and pink flowering almond shrubs accent the garden area. A bench is provided at the end of the cobblestone pathway to sit in the shade of the glorious dogwood tree.