

This hot garden combines heat-loving perennials, ornamental grasses, cacti and evergreens to provide a stunning accent to any warm southwestern location. The brilliant colors will astound you with their splendor. This garden may require some water to establish, but little maintenance after that.