

The flower nectars of this garden attract butterflies, ladybugs, hummingbirds, bees and other creatures into your landscape, frequently alleviating the need for commercial pesticides. Accent these perennials and grasses by adding a bird bath and shallow pans of water, sure to attract creatures great and small.