

Water features prominently in many gardens. Central here is the birdbath fountain and pool bordered with fragrant thyme. An irregular path leads to the fountain and the area is covered in gravel and accented with different types of shrubs and hostas.