

Who doesn't love to see darting, diving, hovering hummingbirds flitting about the garden? This garden is a delight for birds and gardeners alike. Hummingbirds like bright colored flowers rich with nectar. Normally, the plants they prefer are not attractive to bees, making this a good choice for family areas. These flowers tend to stay in bloom for longer periods of time than others, so you'll enjoy the hummingbirds all season long.