

Low maintenance landscapes can be lush and beautiful. Use low maintenance roses that are disease resistant and sturdy. Evergreens never lose their leaves, so there's nothing much to clean up there. To expand on this design, search out plants that are hardy for your zone. Prevent evaporation with at least three inches of mulch and a drip watering system. Most of the plants in this garden need a minimum of pruning.