Trouble Shooting Guide

Since this game uses continuous sound effects in the background you'll need more than 4 megs of ram in your system. If you got 8 megs or more your're ok! But if you got only 4 megs then there is hope!

You'll need to create a new swap file in the size of 11264kb temp or perm. This will give full sound effects.

Follow the instructions in your Windows Manual about changing your Perm or Swap file size or go into your CONTROL PANEL and double click on HELP.

Any questions about this game or about future game titles releases, I can be reached at the above phone number, or through Internet, American Online and through the post.
