- Get FVB and WWIVtips for 10$

Notice: Shipment is included with each package.

You get with all offer a disk with your software(s) and filled with the most FMD products it can handle and your personal registration codes and keys.

WWIVsys is the best system operator configuration tool for WWIV. If you've never seen it, you should get a copy as soon as possible to evaluate the software. It's available on several WWIV systems and at the FMD Software FTP site: ftp.wwiv.com/fmd

There has been a lot of improvements since v1.6 that has been released in August '95, after 9 months of beta testing we are proud to present a much more stable software.

FVB (French Mod Division Voting Booth) is an external software that can be used as a door or to replace WWIV's internal voting booth section. This software will evolve by requests of the registered users and offers a very stable software compared to v1.0 that was released over a year ago.

WWIVtips is a logon event for WWIV, it shows your users tips about WWIV as they log on, you can add how many tips you want to show your users how works modifications done to your system, or use it to promote anything else.

When you register a software from FMD Software, you have a previledge user. You have access to all beta testing versions, you have incridible support via various WWIV networks, via the Internet (even on IRC) and on many FMD Support BBS around the planet. You have access to many ressources and many registered users are very happy with our customer support.
