Help for DooDah, Inc. HR Employee Info

Welcome to the DooDah, Inc. Human Recources on-line information system. This hypertext system is designed to help you find quick answers to questions related to your employment at DooDah. Inc. Here are the main topic areas in the Help System:

What infomation can you find here?

Navigating the Browser program

Topic text omitted to save space

Insurance button

This button displays general information about insurance benefits and provides access to more detailed information on each program.

Benefits button

This button displays general information about non-insurance benefits and provides access to detailed information about each benefit program.

Policies button

This button displays general information about employment policies and provides access to detailed information on specific policies.

Help Button

Displays the Contents screen of the on-line Help system

Close button

This button closes the HR On-line Info System and returns you to Windows.