Services

Talent Information Management specializes in delivering cost-effective solutions that help organizations to harness the power of the Internet for commercial purposes. TIM provides a competitive advantage and strategic positioning for businesses that are ready for global exposure. We deliver complete turnkey solutions, integrating Internet technologies and applications with your LAN, WAN, and computing environments.

TIM will assess your company's needs to best identify the most cost-effective, feasible Internet opportunities for your company. We design, implement, and support the end-to-end solution to your requirements. Furthermore, we will transfer the necessary knowledge and skills needed to use and manage your own Internet connection. Even if you are unfamiliar with the Internet at this point, we will aid you in using and exploring its many avenues, and make sure that you are comfortable in maintaining your homepage information.

Talent Information Management offers the following highly specialized consulting services to meet your needs:

Strategic Consulting

We help clients identify and utilize the strategic opportunities created by the explosive growth of the Internet. Organizations can dramatically improve communications with customers and suppliers, accelerate product cycles, open new global markets, and improve services by taking advantage of these opportunities.

Internet Business Services

Talent Information Management assists clients in establishing an Internet presence and offering on-line services such as newsletters, catalogs, product literature, ordering, and database retrieval.
