Shareware Trial Edition.

WARNING! THIS IS NOT FREE OR PUBLIC DOMAIN SOFTWARE. THIS IS A COPYRIGHTED COMMERCIALLY PUBLISHED PROGRAM.

WHAT IS SHAREWARE?

Shareware is a means of marketing Software at a reasonable price. Developers of Software use Shareware to distribute their products using Shareware because it provides a minimal advertising cost. Advertising costs money. In order to market a program on a retail basis, a developer typically needs to sell a minimum of 5000 copies a month. Shareware circumvents this somewhat and helps provide you the customer with a good value at a much lower price than you would receive from a commercial source.

In order for shareware to work, If users are actually using a product, they must register. Developers can't continue to develop and improve products if customers don't register and upgrade. Running a small business costs money. If you enjoy using a shareware product, either register it or tell the developer what they can do to provide a product that you will register. If you don't register remove the product from your system and don't use it.

Shareware is not Free or Public Domain Software. You can't expect timely upgrades and fixes from Free or Public Domain Software. With a Product like ASTRO, if you register, and you there are problems I will do everything I can to see that the product works well for you. I will provide you as much assistance as I can. This unfortunately costs money. I can't do it without your registration.

This software is provided for Trial Purposes Only! The purpose of this is to give you the user the opportunity to try out ASTRO without having to buy it in order to try it.

This version allows you to use all features of this version unimpaired. You are Entitled to Use this Shareware Version for Up to 30 days from purchase without Obligation. You may not use this version for any Commercial Purpose. I will attempt to provide a minimal level of technical support to any caller who calls asking for help without registration.

Since this package is provided for trial purposes, you may copy the original .ZIP or .LZH files or disks you received as many times as you wish, and upload, download it to your heart's content.

The only thing I ask is to upload or copy the entire package intact, in the original ZIP file (provided you got this package on a BBS) or disk form, and not change the program or any of the documentation.
