Setup:

Not much to say here from File Manager or Windows Explorer run the setup.exe file and follow direction.

Uninstall:

This program installs all need file in the directory that you selected at setup. There are no other file installed for this program. As long as you installed the program in its own directory you can just delete that directory and remove the icon, if installed from your desktop.