

Image Viewer Overview

The Image Viewer is useful in viewing BMP, GIF, JPG, and SIF images. It has a very fast JPG decompressor for fast viewing of JPG files. If you do not have a current viewer installed on your system, Image Viewer will then become your default Image Viewer.

You can easily change the image size and save the image in a different format than the original.

The following describes the use of the Image Viewers Icon Bar and Menu Bar.

Related Topics:

Menu Bar

Icon Bar

Image Viewer Main Menu Bar

The following option can be found on the Image Viewers Main Menu Bar.

File Menu Item:

Open:

This option allows you to open one of the following image types for viewing. JPG, GIF, BMP, WMF, and SIF.

Save:

This option allows you to save the current image in one of the following formats. GIF, BMP, and SIF.

Print:

This option allows you to print the current image to your printer. The current zoom ratio will be applied to the image that is printed.

Printer Setup:

This option will allow you to setup your printer option.

Exit:

This option allows you to Exit the Image Viewer and return to The Secure Mail System.

Edit Menu Item:

Paste To Clipboard:

This option allows you to past the current image to the clipboard.

Copy From Clipboard:

This option will past an image to the Image Viewer from the clipboard.

Option Menu Item:

JPG:

Colors:

This option allows you to select the number of colors to use when viewing a JPG Image. Valid colors are 16, 256, and True Color.

Gray Scale:

When checked, applies a Gray Scale filter to the current image.

Smooth:

When checked, applies smoothing to the current image.

Single Pass:

When checked, will do a single pass scan on image. This degrades the quality of the image but will load the image faster.

Fast Processing:

When checked, will process a JPG image much faster with degraded image results.

GIF:

File Information:

This option allows you to change the image properties of the current Image.

Related Topics:

Icon Bar

Image Viewer Icon Bar

The Icon Bar contains quick access to the more used option. Below is a list of short cut icons in the order of left to right.

Save File:

This option allows you to save the current image in one of the following formats. GIF, BMP, and SIF.

Open File:

This option allows you to open one of the following image types for viewing. JPG, GIF, BMP, WMF, and SIF.

Paste To Clipboard:

This option allows you to past the current image to the clipboard.

Copy From Clipboard:

This option will past an image to the Image Viewer from the clipboard.

Print:

This option allows you to print the current image to your printer. The current zoom ratio will be applied to the image that is printed.

Printer Setup:

This option will allow you to setup your printer option.

Zoom Out:

This option allows you to zoom the current image out. The current zoom factor will be used when the image is saved or printed.

Zoom In:

This option allows you to zoom the current image In. The current zoom factor will be used when the image is saved or printed.

Exit::

This option allows you to Exit the Image Viewer and return to The Secure Mail System.

Related Topics:

Menu Bar

